

About BGCB

What We Do

Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston (BGCB) helps at-risk boys and girls develop the qualities needed to become responsible citizens and leaders.

Where We Work

BGCB currently operates five free-standing Clubs and four School Clubs throughout Boston and in Chelsea. We serve in communities where the need for safe after-school, weekend and summer programming is greatest. BGCB also operates the Youth Service Providers Network (YSPN) and Camp Harbor View.

The Dearborn Club offers programs in six core areas – Arts; Education; Leadership; Life Skills; Sports, Fitness and Recreation; and Technology – enabling youth to become responsible citizens and leaders.

Pine Manor Mentoring – Volunteers from Pine Manor College provide one-on-one mentoring to female Club members.

Torch Club – Members develop their leadership, character, and community skills through various projects.

U.S. Coast Guard – Members receive hands-on programming and information from Coast Guard officers.

Youth Work Central – Members participate in peer leadership training for young adults.

SCORES FC – A program that teaches soccer and literacy to members to help them succeed in life.

Banking on Our Future (BOOF) – Members receive financial education to help with their futures.

Membership

We keep our Clubs and programs affordable to accommodate more youth who need us. Access to all programs and facilities described in this brochure is included with a membership. Members also may access school-year programming at any BGCB Club without additional cost. Contact the Club to learn more about membership.

Ages Served: 6th-8th grade*

 Member capacity is capped at 75.*

Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston serves youth up to age 18, so your child can continue to be a Club member when he/she reaches the 9th grade. Visit www.bgcb.org to find a Club near you.
