

The Chelsea Record • Thursday, May 29, 2008

JB Sash and Door to hold Chelsea Day celebration

By CARY SHUMAN

JB Sash and Door will once again step up to the plate for the Jordan Boys and Girls Club of Chelsea with its annual Chelsea Day celebration that is scheduled for Tuesday, June 24, from 12 noon to 3 p.m., at the company's headquarters on Second Street.

All proceeds from the fun-filled food and sports extravaganza will be donated to the Jordan Boys and Girls Club. JB Sash and Door and the Bertolami family have raised several thousands for the club in the history of the event. The Bertolami family has also been active in several other local causes, and it is well-known that JB Sash and Door was one of the earliest supporters to the boxing career of former WBA heavyweight champion John Ruiz.

Josh Kraft, executive director of the Jordan Boys and Girls Club, said his organization is grateful to JB Sash and Door and the Bertolami family for their generous donation every year.

For the first time this year, Chelsea Day visitors must pay a $5 admission fee for the event. Children under 12, accompanied by a parent or guardian, will be admitted free of charge. Attendees may have their photo taken with a Red Sox or Patriot players for $15.

Eddie Andelman will be broadcasting Chelsea Day live on WWZN-AM 1510 Zone. Among the restaurants and food establishments that will have food stations at the event are Kayem Foods, Kowloon, New Brown Jug, New Bridge Café, Kettle Cuisine, Fudruckers, Stop & Shop, and Moadnock Water.