OUR OPINIONS

JOSH KRAFT

The Boys and Girls Club of Boston has named Josh Kraft as its chief executive officer (CEO).

This is a well-earned and deserved honor for Kraft, who needs no introduction to the people and the children of Chelsea.

During his time at the Jordan Boys and Girls Club of Chelsea, Kraft has largely been responsible for taking an idea of forming a boys and girls club locally and turning it into reality.

What began with very humble circumstances about 15 years ago has coalesced into a first-rate boys and girls club that's open to all.

This Chelsea facility for kids came into being because of the organizing skills of Josh Kraft and because of the ability of the Boys and Girls Club organization to raise money and get the job done.

Now Josh Kraft is taking on a much greater responsibility.

We wish him great success in his new role.

He's a great guy and a good friend.
