Joshua Kraft has been named the new president and CEO of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston.

Kraft, who was chosen out of 250 candidates, will replace outgoing CEO Linda Whitlock, who has held the position for 10 years.

Whitlock announced she was stepping down last year.

Kraft started working at the Boston-based nonprofit in 1990, managing programs for at-risk youth at the South Boston club.

He was chosen after a search conducted by executive search firm Gilbert Tweed Associates.

Kraft is son of Robert and Myra Kraft, who own the New England Patriots.
