

April 1, 2011

The South Boston Boys and Girls Club Adventure Team traveled to Bethel, Maine, for dog sledding. The team learned the basics of dog sledding, including how to set up the dog team, how to use terminology and commands, how to feed the dogs, and each member had the opportunity to lead a team of at least 10 dogs.

Adventure Team leader Randy Carey with Patrick Corbitt, Lys Canton-Lamousse, and Patrick Lynch.

Keiony Hickman and Lys Canton-Lamousse with their team of dogs.

The team unloads to start the 30-mile trail.

The Adventure Team receiving tips from instructor Steve Crone.

Patrick Lynch looks on as his dogs get ready to run.

Dog sledding in action.