

ROGER FARRINGTON PHOTO The Cartier boutique on Newbury Street hosted a benefit reception on Thursday, Sept. 17th, for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston (BGCB). The event celebrated 100 years of Cartier in America and featured an exclusive viewing of Cartier's 'Precious Jewelry and Timepiece Collection' specially created to mark the occasion. Co-hosted by Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston president and CEO Josh Kraft and Cartier Boston director Cedric Tonello, nearly 200 VIP guests enjoyed champagne, hors d'oeuvres and checking- out the rare collection of jewelry. Ten percent of the evening's sales were donated to Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston. Above, East Boston resident Dan Ronan (right) poses with Boston Bruin left winger Marco Sturm.
