It was an honor

Twenty years ago I came to Charlestown and the Charlestown Club for the first time as a volunteer music teacher. Two decades later I am so grateful for the time I've spent and all that I have learned in this community and at the Club.

I'm about to have my second baby and the timing makes sense for me to leave my job as executive director at the Club. It will be hard to leave such a great job, and I want people to know how much I have loved working at the Club and what an honor it has been to be a part of such a wonderful community. The Club has such a rich history, and I have been lucky to be a part of an organization that so many people in the past and today care about and have worked so hard to help flourish. I am also grateful to many of you for your work to make Charlestown such a good place to live and work and the Club a place that all Charlestown children and teens can come to to have fun, learn something new, make friends, find trusted adults to depend on and discover who they are and what they can become. The Club has certainly been that place for me!

Sincerely,

Jenny Atkinson
