Boys and Girls Club of Boston CEO Josh Kraft and board of directors chair Jonathan Davis, of the Davis Companies, had plenty of support at their annual dinner for the organization at the Copley Westin the other night. Joining them were Suffolk Construction boss John Fish, event cochairs Ted Kelly of Liberty Mutual and Herb Wagner of the Baupost Group, and Josh's parents Robert and Myra Kraft. Fish and Davis matched $25,000 donations up to $250,000, calling it the Fish-Davis Challenge. The night raised more than $1.3 million. ■
