How do you get to the Navy Yard? Where in the Navy Yard?

Enter at Gate 4 and you will see signs for registration, etc. For a map of the Navy Yard, click here:

How about public transportation?

The Navy Yard is closest to the orange line. The best stop is North Station—from there cross the North Washington Bridge and turn right at the end of the bridge at City Square (near the Coldstone Creamery and The Catarano Company). Keep going until you get the Gate 4 of the Navy Yard and you will see signs to registration, etc.

How do I register?

You can register online at active.com (search for Battle of Bunker Hill Road Race) or call the club at 617-242-1775 with your address to have an application mailed to you.

How about registration the day of the race?

If you want to register the day of the race or miss pre-registration, you can come to registration any time after 7:30 a.m. the morning of the race.

When can I pick up my number?

Number pick-up is the morning of the race at registration in the Navy Yard.

How do I register a team?

There is a place for runners to write their team name on the paper application or enter in the online application. All runners must do this or they will not be considered a part of a team. You must have five people to be considered a team.

When does registration start?

Registration is open by 7:30 a.m. the morning of the race in the Navy Yard.

When do the races start?

The 2 mile race starts at 8:30 a.m. and the 8K race starts at 9:30 a.m.

I just registered, will I get a t-shirt?

T-shirts go to the first 400 runners. We can't be sure until registration lists are compiled exactly who will get shirts. If you don't, feel free to check at registration at the end of the race because we sometimes have extras at the end.

Are there lockers or a secure area for my stuff?

Unfortunately, we are unable to provide any area for people to store belongings.

Where does the race start?

The 2 mile starts inside the Navy Yard. When you register or pick up your number, the volunteers can let you know where to go. The start of the 8K is right outside of the Navy Yard on Chelsea Street.

Where are results posted?
