

Senator Scott Brown speaks in Chelsea

CHelsea RECORD STAFF

Monday at the club on Willow Street.

United States Senator Scott Brown was the guest speaker at the Breakfast Series 2011, a monthly event in support of the Jordan Boys and Girls Club.

Brown was elected by the people of Massachusetts on Jan. 19, 2010 to fill the term of the late Senator Ted Kennedy. He serves on the Senate

Please see BROWN, Page 6

The breakfast was held

From left, Mark Robinson, member of the Jordan Boys and Girls Club Advisory Board; Josh Kraft, president and CEO of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston; U.S. Senator Scott Brown; Robert Beal, president of The Beal Companies; and Chelsea City Manager Jay Ash.

Page 6

Brown/ Continued from Page 1

Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Veterans' affairs and the Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee. Prior to his election to the U.S. Senate, Brown served in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Brown told the gathering at the breakfast that his new book, "Against All Odds" will be coming out next week. (Information used in this story was taken from the breakfast series program).

Attorney Jack Richard, constituent services counsel for United States Senator Scott Brown, is pictured with Barry Kirshon, owner of Kirshon Paint on Pearl Street. Richard was an All-Star shortstop in the Chelsea Little League for the dynastic Red Legs team sponsored by Kirshon Paint. Richard was also a superb cross country runner at Chelsea High School before continuing his education at Tufts University and Boston College Law School.

The Chelsea Record • Thursday, February 17, 2011

Phone: 617-884-2416 Fax: 781-485

From left, Barry Kirshon, Chelsea Police Chief Brian Kyes, U.S. Senator Scott Brown, Shelagh Mahoney McNamee, Joseph Mc and Matthew Monkiewicz.