

Weston resident named to board of Boys & Girls Clubs

Dana Bisbee

Polly Slavet

GateHouse News Service

Posted Dec 07, 2010 @ 08:17 PM | Weston Town Crier

WESTON —

The Board of Directors of Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston elected four directors and 13 overseers at the agency's 116th Annual Meeting on Nov. 18, including Polly Slavet to the Board of Overseers.

A former registered school nurse with an interest in marginalized youth, Slavet is an active community volunteer. She serves on the Board of Directors for Friends of the Weston Library, Golden Ball Tavern Museum and Weston Garden Club. Earlier, she served as the president of the Wellesley College Friends of the Library and as a board member for the Wellesley College Alumnae Association.

Prior to these roles, Slavet was a research assistant at the Walter E. Fernald State School and practiced nursing at Mount Auburn Hospital, Newton-Wellesley Hospital and the Gifford School in Weston.

Slavet received her bachelor's degree from Wellesley College and a BSN from Northeastern University School of Nursing. She resides in Weston with her husband, and has two married daughters, two granddaughters, two married stepsons and four step-grandchildren.

The Board of Overseers is charged with supporting the principal activities and policies of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, and acting as a liaison between the agency and the various communities it serves.

Copyright 2010 The Weston Town Crier. Some rights reserved