

South Boston adventurers' ice climb

February 9, 2011

Randy Carey, athletic director for the South Boston Boys and Girls Club, is also the founder of its Adventure Club, an exclusive program designed to give a small group of Boys and Girls Club members memorable experiences. The first of many adventures was ice climbing over the holiday break.

Adventure Club members Patrick Lynch, Patrick Corbitt, Keiony Hickman, Lys Canton-Lamousse, and Alexis Tamburello took part in the climb.

Club members learned the basics of ice climbing.

Alexis Tamburello almost reaches the top of the mountain.

The adventurers walked up the trail to their climbing site.

Patrick Lynch showed off his ice climbing skills.
