In remembrance of Dawnn Jaffier who was tragically killed by gun violence.
(February 28, 1988 – August 23, 2014)

Coach Dawnn, as she was affectionately called, was my first employee at the Hennigan Club. I hired her as my Group Leader and she worked mostly with the 10 and 11 year olds. Dawnn was passionate about helping young people and worked tirelessly to ensure that the members at our Club were safe and had a fun and positive experience after school. What I will remember most about Dawnn was her smile. It was so infectious that it lit up a room.

I will remember her desire and ability to connect with young people because it was beautiful to watch. And last, I will remember her passion to serve the communities of Boston because it was awe-inspiring.

What Dawnn did was not a job to her, but her life's work. These are the things that will live on and that no one act of violence can take away from her legacy. Dawnn added the magic that permeated through the Hennigan Club and the Club would not have nearly been the same if she wasn't a part of it. With many, many others, I count it a privilege to have known Dawnn and I will miss her dearly.

– Carl Thompson, Berkshire Partners Executive Director, Blue Hill Club (former Director, Hennigan Club)
Our Mission
Our mission is to help young people, especially those who need us most, build strong character and realize their full potential as responsible citizens and leaders.
Dear Friends

Like our members, you could say I've grown up at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston. I started as a community worker with the South Boston Club in 1990, and over the past 25 years I have had an extraordinary opportunity to develop professionally, acquiring new skills, overcoming challenges, and benefiting from a multiplicity of experiences.

My BGCB career is a testament to our organization's commitment to continuous growth and innovation on every level. In the past 25 years, we established seven new Clubs and increased the number of youth we serve by 11,000. In 2014, we kicked off the $11.3 million renovation of the South Boston Club, where I learned valuable lessons and where thousands of kids will get the help they need to build bright futures.

With $5 million in combined support from the Richard and Susan Smith Family Foundation and Robert and Dana Smith, we also began the transformation of the former Mattapan Public Library into BGCB’s Mattapan Teen Center. The state-of-the-art center opened in November 2014 and will serve 125 teenagers daily, Tuesday through Saturday.

We could not fulfill our mission without generous donors like the Smith family and many other dedicated groups of supporters including two who marked significant milestones this year. The South Shore Committee, which supports the Roxbury Club's summer camp, has sponsored 1,500 “camperships” since 2005 and raised nearly $270,000. Our Friends Council, made up of 125 members and supported by 250 young professionals, received $100,000 in donations in 2014, reaching new records.

I am excited to report that two new initiatives launched this year. Our new women's leadership council, the Artemis Circle, brings together women who want to make a difference in the lives of Boston's youth. This effort has been led by an engaged leadership committee. Our first-ever Planned Giving Advisory Group promotes awareness among our donors about the benefits of planned giving to the organization. I thank former Board Chair Jonathan Davis, who is heading up the Advisory Group, for his continuing service.

After 25 years, I am still amazed and inspired when Club alumni come by and catch me up on their lives; many now donors and volunteers themselves. On behalf of all our current and former members, I thank you for enabling BGCB and the young people we serve to grow and thrive.

With gratitude,

Josh Kraft
Nicholas President and CEO*

*The title of the senior professional position at Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston honors Peter and Ginny Nicholas in recognition of their deep commitment to the organization and to further their dedication to ensuring excellence in organizational leadership.
Dear Friends

During my first year as Board Chair, I spent a lot of time in our Clubs. I sat in on math tutoring lessons, cheered on swim teams, and walked in on jam sessions. I also met once a week with a group of girls at the Yawkey Club of Roxbury.

These visits confirmed what I know to be true. Within each child lies the seed of their future growth. With proper nurturing, they can reach the peak of their capabilities. However, to help children attain their full potential requires an abundance of resources, planning, dedication and love throughout their childhoods.

During my visits, I saw our talented youth development professionals in action. Daily, these experts are providing not only enriching experiences with a focus on excellence, but they are also building influential, ongoing relationships with our members and their families. Together with educators and other community partners, they create an entire ecosystem committed to encouraging our members' healthy development.

Continuity is critical, and I am proud to report that the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston enjoyed an 87% retention rate of its full-time staff in 2014. This impressive number reflects BGCB’s success in creating a positive, fulfilling work environment. I believe we owe credit for this to the leadership of Josh Kraft, Boys & Girls Club of Boston’s Nicholas President and CEO.

Josh, who is celebrating his 25th anniversary with BGCB, has been an outstanding partner to me this year and I thank him for his guidance. It is also an honor to serve with my fellow board members, who are an incredibly generous and supportive team. They exemplify the organization’s commitment to excellence, growth and innovation, and the value of long-term relationships – with our members, our staff, our partners, and our supporters.

This year, 12 partners – some longstanding, some new – participated in our Summer Jobs Initiative. Each offered our members summer positions, giving them the opportunity to earn income and gain work experience. We thank them and look forward to continuing the initiative far into the future. I invite you to contact me directly to find out more.

Lastly, I would like to express my deep appreciation to you. Your support enables us to nurture the potential of more than 16,000 children a year – children who will become invaluable contributors to our communities and our future.

With gratitude,

Dana Smith
Chair of the Board
SUMMER JOBS INITIATIVE
Connecting Members to Opportunity

With teen employment in Massachusetts at its lowest rate in 45 years, Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston launched the Summer Jobs Initiative in 2013. In the face of severe cuts in state and local funding for teen jobs, BGCB solicited private sector companies directly to hire members and alumni. Companies could also support the Jobs Initiative by hosting unpaid job shadowing opportunities for teen members during the spring school break. For most, the experience was their first exposure to a professional environment.

Twelve valued partners offered summer employment to members, including: Berkshire Partners, Boston Children’s Hospital, Castanea Partners, Margulies Perruzzi Architects, McCall & Almy, Inc., Neiman Marcus, Relevant24, Schernecker Property Services, Summit Partners, VPNE Parking Solutions LLC and Westfield Capital Management. To date, 27 members have received summer placements, ranging from general office assistant to cashier. Some members have continued to work part time during the school year. These “first jobs” have provided our teens and young adults not only with helpful income, but also with invaluable skills and experience that will provide them with exposure to professional environments so they can enter the workforce better prepared as young adults.

Jakiel Weaver started going to the Blue Hill Club at 9-years-old, as much for its Music Clubhouse as for the safe haven it afforded after school. Jakiel’s uncle had taught him to play piano at the age of six and the Club’s highly developed music program has helped him become an accomplished musician.

Also a talented artist, Jakiel has an eye for design – one of the reasons he has found his job as Receiving Department Assistant at Neiman Marcus so rewarding.

The high school junior is interested in the intersection of the arts and business and hopes to major in business administration and music production in college.

Daniel Kramer, vice president and general manager of Neiman Marcus Boston, with Jakiel Weaver during his shift.
MY JOB IS HELPING ME see things in the real world and expanding my knowledge of fashion and what sells and what doesn’t sell. I’m learning what I’ll need to know to run my own business successfully. It’s also helping me save money because part of my check is deposited directly into savings.

–Jakiel
Investment in youth is key to sustaining Greater Boston's vibrant and diverse business community. For this reason, Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston founded our Corporate Leadership Council (CLC) in 2008 to provide guidance and offer opportunities for the city's business leaders to engage more deeply in our work.

Current programming includes annual breakfast meetings that feature a prominent keynote speaker and related highlights of Club and program activities. In FY14, we were pleased to welcome Andrew H. Card, Jr., the second longest tenured White House Chief of Staff, as our featured guest.

I've made a lot of friends since I started going to the Club when I was in first grade. When we do projects together I like it when I'm the leader.

– Laisha
The pilot Inclusion Initiative that began at our South Boston Club in 2011 has now grown into a comprehensive approach practiced at all of our Clubs, thanks to the generous support of The Boston Foundation.

The “I Am In” (All Members Included Now) Initiative helps BGCB better serve children and teens with Down Syndrome, autism, developmental delays, physical impairments, learning disabilities and other challenges. I Am In creates a supportive, inclusive environment that gives all members opportunities to succeed, teaches members to accept differences and appreciate diversity, and encourages positive relationships between all members.

Inclusion touches all aspects of BGCB programming. The Boston Foundation’s three-year grant funds an organization-wide Director of Inclusion and part-time Inclusion Specialists at five Clubs, as well as training costs and program supplies, such as Braille books and talking clocks.

If you walk into the Gerald and Darlene Jordan Club in Chelsea, you might just see a smiling, 10-year-old Laisha zipping around delivering small packages throughout the building. That’s because Laisha really enjoys helping people and feeling responsible.

It’s her job to tend the office plant of the Club’s Executive Director, Michelle Perez. But it’s not all work and no play for Laisha. She spends most of her time at the Club creating art projects, swimming and singing. All her activities are adapted to her needs and support her success.

Jessie Bari, Director of Inclusion at Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston, with a South Boston Club Member.
Throughout our history, BGCB has leveraged the expertise and resources of other organizations to broaden our reach and deepen our impact. Our reputation for exceptional program delivery has, in turn, made us a sought-after partner for organizations seeking to provide beneficial programs or services to children and teens. BGCB’s partnerships play a vital role in serving members, in leveraging resources for maximum impact, and in helping us develop effective citizens and leaders among the youth whom we serve.

More than 125 young professionals share their time, talent and knowledge at our Clubs as members of BGCB’s Friends Council. Friends Council members volunteer in a variety of roles – from kitchen helper to crafts assistant – and many tutor members in school subjects. One of the Friends Council’s signature volunteer events, Club Member for a Night, brings together Club and Friends Council members for an evening of fun and games and the opportunity to get to know one another.

Founded in 2010 by BGCB Overseers Peter Creighton, Bill Moran and Ashley Wisneski, the Friends Council engages early career professionals with an interest in volunteering and a desire to help urban youth. In addition to volunteering in the Clubs, Friends Council members serve as ambassadors for BGCB and support the Clubs through philanthropy and social networking. In 2014, the Friends Council broke its fundraising record, raising more than $100,000 to support Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston’s programming. Friends Council members represent the next generation of BGCB leadership, and many are continuing a family legacy of supporting the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston.
THE CLUB IS SUCH AN INSPIRATIONAL PLACE AND

I leave wondering who has enjoyed our time more, the volunteers or the kids.

South Shore Campership / Weston Friends

South Shore Campership Initiative

Formed in 2004, this initiative connects residents of the South Shore to Roxbury youth by funding summer camperships at the Yawkey Club. The Committee marked its 10th anniversary and raised $50,000 in 2014, providing 500 week-long summer camperships.

Weston Friends of the Blue Hill Boys & Girls Club

Formed in 2010, the Weston Friends of the Blue Hill Boys & Girls Club support summer camperships at the Blue Hill Club in Dorchester. This year they raised more than $25,000 providing 260 week-long camp scholarships.
I learned to swim my first summer at six years old. I started as a beginner tadpole and ended as a shark. I learned how to roller skate in gym and to use Photoshop in computers. We also go to exciting places like Water Country. Camp Jubilee is a place I can run around and play.

– Laurayne
Every year, the South Shore Friends Committee makes sure as many young Roxbury residents as possible enjoy the kind of carefree, fun-filled summer every kid deserves. The Committee funds camp scholarships called “camperships” for children ages 6-12 to attend Camp Jubilee at the Yawkey Club of Roxbury. The seven-week, full-day program engages campers’ minds and bodies with a diverse roster of activities, including arts and crafts, science and technology projects, sports, and field trips.

Committee leaders – Emily Brown, Karen Canfield, Susan Carrabes, Catherine Cantillon and Mary O’Connor – hail from Cohasset, Scituate and Hingham, and reach out to their friends and neighbors to raise money for camperships. Emily, also a member of BGCB’s Board of Directors and the Yawkey Club of Roxbury’s Advisory Board, first suggested connecting her town and the surrounding South Shore community with Roxbury youth in 2005. Since then, the Committee has expanded across the South Shore and raised nearly $270,000 and provided 2,775 kids with camperships.

Laurayne’s mom was working a full-time and a part-time job and had no one to watch her and her brother for the summer. Her dad’s critical illness had left him unable to work and depleted the family’s finances.

Laurayne’s mom didn’t think she could afford a summer camp that would keep her children Laurayne, 6, and Alan, 10, safe, well-occupied, and happy – until her mom saw a flyer for Camp Jubilee and received camperships for both children from the South Shore Friends Committee.

Four years later, Laurayne has become a champion swimmer and Alan is now a camp counselor in training.
Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston gratefully acknowledges the members of the President’s Circle for their exceptional leadership and generous financial support. Individual, corporate, and foundation members of the President’s Circle contribute $100,000 or more each year, making a positive, lasting impact on the 16,000 youth we serve in Boston and Chelsea. The following list recognizes those donors who made unrestricted and restricted current use, endowment, and capital gifts totaling $100,000 or more during fiscal year 2014.

FREDERIC C. CHURCH SR. LEGACY SOCIETY

Known as “Mr. Boys Club,” Frederic C. Church Sr. was a driving force in the growth of what is now Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston. The civic-minded World War I veteran served as a BGCB volunteer leader for nearly 55 years and as Board president from 1935-1955. Mr. Church sought to ensure BGCB had a financial foundation that was built to last. He worked tirelessly to secure annual gifts, endowment support and bequests.

Today, members of the Frederic C. Church Sr. Legacy Society support BGCB by naming Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston in their wills or estate plans, establishing a charitable gift annuity or other types of planned gifts. We invite you to become a member, or to let us know if you have already made a commitment of this nature. For more information please contact Elizabeth Stevens, Planned Giving Officer, at (617) 994-4784 or estevens@bgcb.org.

In 2005, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston received a significant bequest that doubled our endowment overnight. This unanticipated, high-impact gift inspired the formation of the Frederic C. Church Sr. Legacy Society, honoring our longest serving Board president and recognizing those who establish planned gifts with the long-term well-being of BGCB in mind.

Knowing how important planned giving is to our future, the Board of Directors and Senior Leadership asked outgoing Board Chair Jonathan Davis to lead the organization’s first Planned Giving Advisory Group. Jon quickly established a team, which consists of 18 members from among BGCB’s Boards of Directors, Overseers (current and emeriti) and the Senior Advisory Board, plus experts in the field.

This Advisory Group strives to raise awareness of planned giving in order to build a future of support for BGCB. It has already met with tremendous success. In the short time since the Advisory Group’s formation, membership in the Frederic C. Church Sr. Legacy Society has doubled, from 15 to 30 members, and deferred commitments have increased nearly fivefold, from $1.7 million to $8.1 million. In addition, the Advisory Group counsels the organization on policy matters, marketing plans, and strategic goals for the planned giving program.

Jonathan & Margot Davis: For 17 years, Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston has benefited from the energy, vision and leadership of Jonathan and Margot Davis, including Jon’s three dynamic years as Chair of the Board of Directors and now as Chair of BGCB’s first Planned Advisory Group. Their efforts have strengthened the organization in ways both visible and invisible – but all enduring.

In addition to annual gifts of unrestricted operating and endowment support, Jon and Margot have shared their intention of leaving a generous unrestricted bequest to BGCB, with the hope that this would inspire others. And it has. Since they announced their gift, many others have stepped forward to share in Jon and Margot’s vision of sustaining BGCB for future generations of young people.

Jon Davis with a Charlestown Club member at the Annual Meeting.
What motivates us are the young people. We walk into a Club and they’re composing a song, or playing basketball. They’re crouched over a computer. They’re constructively engaged, and they’re having a good time.
The Artemis Circle, Boys & Girls Clubs of Boston's women's leadership council, was designed to allow women to be involved with BGCB in a way that works best for them. This initiative is bringing the energy and passion of like-minded women together to collectively make a difference in the lives of Boston's youth. Through fundraising, volunteering and a collective voice, the Artemis Circle can support BGCB's commitment to help all children discover their talents and work towards achieving their dreams.

In its first full year, 302 women participated in Artemis Circle activities and raised $75,820 to support Leadership Programming at BGCB in addition to donating and wrapping 416 holiday gifts for Club members, and collecting more than 2,000 books to refresh our Charlestown Club's library. Artemis Circle supporters and their families provided 198 hours of service to the Clubs through the Sandra M. Edgerley Family Engagement Series, working together to have a profound effect on the lives of Boston's urban youth.

I'M A CLUB KID

I grew up in the South Boston Club and so did my brothers. You learned about winning. You learned about losing. You learned how to be competitive, and you learned about leadership. The folks at the Club not only kept you busy, but they also guided you along the right path.

– Paul Rooney
Since its opening in 1938, the South Boston Club has become a community institution, continuously providing generations of families with affordable, safe and relevant after school programming. The building itself, though, has undergone few updates in the past 72 years.

The $11.3 million campaign to renovate – led by the South Boston Capital Campaign Honorary Co-Chairs Sandra M. Edgerley, Ray Flynn, David Lindsay-Abaire and Kevin Phelan – supports a long-overdue, extensive renovation of the facility. The building’s modernization will include updated building systems, reconfigured spaces, a refurbished pool area, improved accessibility, a state-of-the-art music studio and a commercial-quality kitchen.

Paul Rooney and his 10 brothers all called the South Boston Club their second home. Paul credits the Club with helping him set a course for success and teaching him about healthy competition and about taking the lead. He learned those lessons well. Paul went on to Harvard, and in 1997 he founded EBS Capstone, today one of the largest and most respected independent insurance brokerage and consulting firms in New England. Boston Business Journal named the firm one of the “Best Places to Work” in Massachusetts in 2013.

In addition to being a member of the South Boston Club’s Local Advisory Board since 1988, Paul joined BGCB’s Board of Overseers in 1993 and has served on BGCB’s Board of Directors for the past 10 years. Paul is also playing an important role in the fundraising effort to revitalize the South Boston Club’s 72-year-old building. The Club’s enhanced and expanded resources will create opportunity and hope far into the future for thousands of kids like Paul and his brothers.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
The Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, Inc.
Boston, Massachusetts

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, Inc. (the “Organization”) which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities, statements of functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Boys and Girls Clubs of Boston, Inc. as of June 30, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
